
Rory Miller

30 September - 2 October 2016
Hinnerup, Denmark

Rory is one of the World's leading experts in self-protection. He has been a Corrections Officer, a Sergeant, a Tactical Team member and a Tactical Team Leader; he has taught corrections and enforcement personnel skills from first aid to physical defense to crisis communication and mental health - from his west coast home in the US to Baghdad.

Rory is also author of several books and DVDs, and his books "Meditations on Violence" and "Facing Violence" is a must read for everyone interested in the practical application of martial arts. It is therefore a great pleasure for Hinnerup Karate to be able to host the first Danish seminar with Rory. During his visit in Hinnerup, Rory will give a lecture on Conflict Communication Friday evening, and a practical based seminar on Saturday and Sunday with the title "Introduction to violence (Ambushes and Thugs)".
